Dear Honorable Judge Willis:

This Office represents Plaintiff in the above-referenced negligence action brought pursuant to the Federal Tort Claims Act. The case is before Your Honor for all purposes. On behalf of all parties, I write to advise that a settlement has been reached in principle between Plaintiff and Defendant, pending final authorization as well as consent from the Workers' Compensation carrier.

As such, the parties request that the trial scheduled for October 31, 2022 be adjourned without a date, pending final authorizations and execution of closing documents.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this matter and the joint request of the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

John G. Papadopoulos
